

Folk & Traditional Song Lyrics

www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Bonnie Wee Lassie that Never Said No

Bonnie Wee Lassie that Never Said No

I come tae a cross and I met a wee lass
Said I, "Ma wee lass, are ye willin' tae go Tak' share o' a gill?" She cried, "Sir I will
For i'm the wee lassie who never said no"

So intae an alehoose we merrily did go
And we never did rise till the cock it did crow
And it's glass after glass we merrily did toss
Tae the bonnie wee lassie who never said no

The landlady opened the door and come in
She opened the door and came in with a smile
And she's lifted a chair wi' freedom and air
"Here's a health tae the lass that can jigget in style"

Well, the drink they took in, being the best o' the gin
Me bein' myself and sober tae view
And it's glass after glass they merrily did toss
Till the lass and the landlady filled theirsel's fu'

"Look intae yon pocket," the lassie she said
"You are two and six for tae pay for your bed
And for laying me doon you owe me a crown
Look intae your pocket," the lassie she said

Put my hand in her pocket and five pound I took Thinks I tae myself, "I will bundle and go"
And I bade her goodbye, but she made no reply
This bonnie wee lassie who never said no sung by Jeannie Robertson

recorded by Ray Fisher

SOF