

Folk & Traditional Song Lyrics

www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Catfish

Catfish

(Danny O'Keefe)

Standing by the water, staring at the stream,
Tell me, honey, are there any catfish in your dreams?
Catfish ain't expensive, and neither is it free,
Some folks crazy 'bout it. Others have to let it be.

Cho: You walk down to the bank and then you flash your bait.
 You're looking for a catfish, child.
 You ain't got long to wait.

Catfish got whiskers and a sweet little grin,
But you can't never tell where a catfish has been.
I'll be your catfish, honey, any old time.
Just call out my name and drop in your line.

Cause I'm standin' by the water...(Chorus)

Sung by Chris Smither on "Another Way to Find You."

XX

July01