

Cup of Tea

Cup of Tea

I wakes him nice and early when the clock strikes eight,
I am always punctual, never, never late,
with a nice cup of tea, a little round of toast,
The Sporting Life and The Winning Post.
I makes him nice and cozy then I toddles off to work.
I do the best I can.
I'm only doing what a woman should do,
'cos he's only a working man.

My Mother used to sing this. Don't know if there is any more to it...
