

Folk & Traditional Song Lyrics

www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Everything's Going My Way

Everything's Going My Way

I've got the left hind foot of a rabbit
Looks like luck is getting to be a habit
Look at me and Lordy, Lordy, Lordy
Everything's going my way

Oh gee, How happy I feel
I've got the vision of an automobile
Don't have to worry where I get my next meal
Cause I'm eating chicken and I don't have to steal

Every dog's got to have his own day
Well I've had mine and I'm happy to say
Everything, everything, everything, everything
Everything's going my way

learned from Jean Glantz (Messenger) in Brooklyn in 1962
SOF