Paper of Pins (2)

Paper of Pins (2)

I'll give to your my house and lot
And all the money that I've got
If you'll marry, marry, marry, marry
If you'll marry me

Oh, I will take your house and lot
And all the money that you've got
And yes, I will marry, marry, marry, marry
Yes, I will marry you.

Come all the world and plainly see
She loves my money but she don't love me
So I won't marry, marry, marry, marry
I won't marry you.

Well, If you were a better lookin' man
You wouldn't have to offer me money and land
Won't no body marry, marry, marry, marry
Won't no body marry you.

(HE) Well, I won't let you have the last word
(SHE) And I won't let you have the last word
(TOGETHER) So I guess I'll have to marry, marry, marry marry
So I guess I'll have to marry you.
