Christian lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Words and music by J Richards, R Mullan & B Feldman

HE

(G) He can turn the (Bm) tides and calm the (C) angry (G) sea.
(Am) He alone decides who writes the (Am) symphony.
(C) He lights every (Cm) star that makes our (G) darkness (Em) bright.
(F#) He keeps watch all (Bm) through each long and (Am) lonely (D) night.
(G) He still finds the (Em) time to hear a (C) child's first (D) prayer.
(Am7) Saint or sinner (D7) call and always (G) find Him there.
And (Eb) though it makes Him (Cm) sad to see the (G) way we (Bm) live,
He'll always (Am) say, (D) "I forgive".

Basically the same arrangement but in "Guitar Pro" format.

G                 Bm               C      G
He can turn the tides and calm the angry sea;
Am            Em              Am    B7
He alone decides who writes a symphony.
C                Cm                  G  Bm    Em
He lights ev'ry star that makes the darkness bright,
D7                   Bm                  Am       D7
He keeps watch all through each long and lonely night.
G                   Em             Am7           D7
He still finds the time to hear a child's first prayer;
Am7              D7               G9          G
Saint or sinner calls and always finds him there.
Gdim                 Cm             G  G/F#  Bm
Though it makes him sad to see the way we live,
Am  D7       G
He'll always say "I forgive."
