

Traditional Gospel Songs with Chords

Christian lyrics from www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Performer: Doyle Lawson
Album: Treasures Money Can't Buy (Brentwood Music)
From: James Dennis [jedennis@alaska.net]

TREASURES THAT MONEY CAN'T BUY

Intro:

1st VERSE:

A D
While driving one day through the quiet country side.
E D A
An old man was walking, so I offered a ride.
A D
His face was all wrinkled, his hair turned to gray
A E A
And these are the words - that he had to say.

2nd VERSE:

A D
I may look like a beggar but I'm rich as a king.
E D A
What I have in my heart gives me reason to sing.
A D
I will join there with Jesus so why should I sigh.
A E A
For these are the treasures that money can't buy

CHORUS:

E D A
Money is worthless when a soul is at stake
E D E
If gold bought redemption, how much would it take.
A D
But He loved me and saved me and I can't explain why.
A D A
And these are the treasures, these are the treasures,
E A
that money can't buy.

Instrumental break -

3rdVERSE:

So if you look at my garments and you notice they're torn.
Well I've a new Royal Garment that's never been worn.
And the cabin I live in is home till I die.
But I've a mansion in glory that money can't buy.

CHORUS:

ENDING:

A D
Yes He loved me and saved me and I can't explain why.
A D A
And these are the treasures, these are the treasures,

E                    A
that money can't buy.