Back in nineteen thirty-three,
Livin' in the dust was a killin' me.
Back in nineteen thirty-four,
The Dust it rolled and blowed some more.
Long come nineteen thirty-five,
Blowed my crops about nine mile high.
Long about nineteen thirty-six,

Me and my woman in a devil of a fix
Me and my woman in a devil of a fix,
Me and my woman in a devil of a fix.
Long about nineteen thirty-nine
We fanned our tails to the Orgegon line.
Fanned our tail to the Oregon line.
Fanned our tail to the Oregon line.
We got a-hold of a piece of land,
Fifteen miles from the Coulee dam.
Fifteen miles from the Coulee dam,
Fifteen miles from the Coulee dam.
Now the Coulee dam is a sight to see,
Makes this a' e-lec-a-tric-i-tee.
Makes this a' e-lec-a-tric-i-tee,
Makes this a' e-lec-a-tric-i-tee.
Well Oregon state is mighty fine,
If you're hooked on to the power line
But there just ain't no country extra fine.
If you're just a mile from the end o' the line.
Milk my cows and turn my stone,
Till the big Grand Coullee comes along.
My eyes is crossed, my back is a cramp,
Tryin' to read my bible by my coal-oil lamp.
Tryin' to read my bible by my coal-oil lamp.
```

Tryin' to read my bible by my coal-oil lamp.

I guess I come to the end of the line, I guess I come to the end of the line. I guess I come to the end of the line, I guess I come to the end of the line.

Ain't no country extra fine, If you a mile from the end o' the line. Ain't no country extra fine, If you ain't on to the power line.

I guess I come to the end of the line, I guess I come to the end of the line. I guess I come to the end of the line, I guess I come to the end of the line, I guess I come to the end of the line.
