Christ is risen as he said

Christ is risen as he said,
Christ the firstborn from the dead:
See, the stone is rolled away,
see the place where Jesus lay.

Lord of life, he lives again;
Lord of lords, to rule and reign:
Every tongue confess him now,
every knee before him bow.

Christ who died our life to win,
Christ has conquered death and sin:
Now is all his warfare done,
now is every triumph won.

Son of God, his life he gave,
Son of Man, to seek and save:
Risen now, the Son who died,
risen, ascended, glorified.
