

From all thy saints in warfare

The first and last verse are always sung; the second verse is chosen according to the feast.

From all thy saints in warfare, for all thy saints at rest,
to thee, O blessed Jesus, all praises be addressed;
thou, Lord, didst win the battle, that they might conquerors be;
their crowns of living glory are lit with rays from thee.

Saint Andrew the Apostle, November 30

Praise, Lord, for thine apostle, the first to welcome thee, the first to lead his brother the very Christ to see.
With hearts for thee made ready, watch we throughout the year,
forward to lead our brethren to own thine Advent near.

Saint Thomas the Apostle, December 21 or July 3

All praise for thine apostle, whose short lived doubtings prove thy perfect twofold nature, the fullness of thy love.
On all who wait thy coming shed forth thy peace, O Lord, and grant us faith to know thee, true Man, true God, adored.

Saint Stephen, Martyr, December 26 or August 3

Praise for the first of martyrs, who saw thee ready stand to aid in midst of torments, to plead at God's right hand.
Share we with him, if summoned by death our Lord to own,
on earth the faithful witness, in heaven the martyr's crown.

Saint John the Evangelist, December 27 or May 6

Praise for the loved disciple, exiled on Patmos' shore;
praise for the faithful record he to thy Godhead bore,
praise for the mystic vision through him to us revealed.
May we, in patience waiting, with thine elect be sealed.

The Holy Innocents, December 28 or January 11

Praise for thine infant martyrs, by thee with tenderest love called early from the warfare to share the rest above.
O Rachel! cease thy weeping: they rest from pains and cares.
Lord, grant us hearts as guileless and crowns as bright as theirs.

The Conversion of Saint Paul, January 25

Praise for the light from heaven, praise for the voice of awe, praise for the glorious vision the persecutor saw.
Thee, Lord, for his conversion, we glorify today;
so lighten all our darkness with thy true Spirit's ray.

Saint Matthias the Apostle, February 24 or May 14

Lord, thine abiding presence directs the wondrous choice for one in place of Judas the faithful now rejoice.
Thy Church from false apostles forevermore defend,
and by thy parting promise be with her to the end.

Saint Mark the Evangelist, April 25

For him, O Lord, we praise thee, the weak by grace made strong, whose labors and whose Gospel enrich our triumph song.
May we in all our weakness find strength from thee supplied,
and all, as fruitful branches, in thee, the Vine, abide.

Saints Philip and James, Apostles, May 1

All praise for thine apostle, blest guide to Greek and Jew,

and him surnamed thy brother; keep us thy brethren true,
and grant us grace to know thee, the Way, the Truth, the Life;
to wrestle with temptations still victors in the strife.

Saint Barnabas the Apostle, June 11

The son of consolation, moved by thy law of love, forsaking earthly treasures, sought riches from above.
As earth now teems with increase, let gifts of grace descend,
that thy true consolations may through the world extend.

The Birth of Saint John the Baptist, June 24

We praise thee for the Baptist, forerunner of the Word,
our true Elias, making a highway for the Lord.
Of prophets last and greatest, we saw thy dawning ray:
make us the rather blessed who love thy glorious day.

Saint Peter the Apostle, June 29

Praise for thy great apostle, the eager and the bold;
thrice falling, yet repentant, thrice charged to keep thy fold.
Lord, make thy pastors faithful to guard their flocks from ill,
and grant them dauntless courage, with humble, earnest will.

Saint James the Apostle, July 25

For him, O Lord, we praise thee, who, slain by Herod's sword drank of Thy cup of suffering, fulfilling thus thy word.
Curb we all vain impatience to read thy veiled decree,
and count it joy to suffer, if so brought nearer thee.

Saint Bartholomew the Apostle, August 24

All praise for thine apostle, the faithful, pure, and true, whom underneath the fig tree thine eye all seeing knew.
Like him may we be guileless, true Israelites indeed,
that thy abiding presence our longing souls may feed.

Saint Matthew the Apostle, September 21

Praise, Lord, for him whose Gospel thy human life declared, who, worldly gains forsaking, thy path of suffering shared.
From all unrighteous Gammon O give us hearts set free,
that we, whate'er our calling, may rise and follow thee.

Saint Luke the Evangelist, October 18

For that "beloved physician," all praise, whose Gospel shows the Healer of the nations, the Sharer of our woes.
Thy wine and oil, O Savior, and bruised hearts deign to pour,
and with true balm of Gilead anoint us evermore.

Saints Simon and Jude, Apostles, October 28

Praise, Lord, for thine apostles, who sealed their faith today:
one love, one zeal impelled them to tread the sacred way.
May we with zeal as earnest the faith of Christ maintain,
and, bound in love as brethren, at length thy rest attain.

All Saints, November 1, or any saint's feast

Apostles, prophets, martyrs, and all the sacred throng,
who wear the spotless raiment, who raise the ceaseless song,
for these, passed on before us, Savior, we thee adore,
and, walking in their footsteps, would serve thee more and more.

Verse 3

Then praise we God the Father, and praise we God the Son,
and God the Holy Spirit, eternal Three in One;
till all the ransomed number fall down before the throne,
and honor, power, and glory, ascribe to God alone.
