

Glory Be to Jesus' Name
Anonymous, before 1895.
George Stebbins.

Glory, glory be to Jesus,
Glory to His precious name;
Sweet it is to sound His praises,
Blest it is to spread His fame.

Refrain

Glory, glory, hallelujah!
Glory be to Jesus' name,
Sweet it is to sound His praises,
Blest it is to spread His fame.

In the place of His rejection,
Where He suffered, where He died,
Bursts of holy praise ascending,
Greet the glorious Crucified.

Refrain

Here was marred His blessed visage,
Here His brow was wreathed with thorn,
Here the object of derision,
Bitter taunt and mocking scorn.

Refrain

Yes, triumphant hallelujahs
Still arise to greet His name;
Sweet it is to sound His praises,
Blest it is to spread His fame.
