

Glory in My Soul

William Henry.

William Kirkpatrick.

Since my sins are all forgiven,
And the Lord has made me whole,
I have ceased from all my sighing,
For there's glory in my soul.

Refrain

O there's glory, there's glory in my soul,
O there's glory, there's glory in my soul;
Tho' the cares of life surround me,
And their stormy billows roll,
There's glory in my soul.

All my body, soul and spirit
Are resigned to God's control,
And my life is full of sunshine
With His glory in my soul.

Refrain

When in trial or affliction,
Jesus will my heart console;
And my sorrow turn to blessing
With His glory in my soul.

Refrain

I will run the race with patience,
Till I safely reach the goal;
Then I'll sing thro' ceaseless ages
Of His glory in my soul.
