

Go Work, for the Harvest Is Near
Mary Kail, 1871.
William Bentley.

Go work, for the harvest is near,
Go work, for the laborers are few;
Soon Jesus our master in joy will appear,
With His followers faithful and true.

Refrain

We shall rest, we shall rest,
We shall rest on that beautiful shore;
We shall rest, we shall rest,
We shall rest on that beautiful shore.

The poor and the needy may come,
The lame, and the halt and the blind,
And all who are seeking a heavenly home,
The pearl of salvation may find.

Refrain

Bright beautiful palms we shall bear,
With loved ones who've passed on before;
And crowns of rejoicing we ever shall wear,
On the beautiful, beautiful shore.
