

God's Holy Book
Martha Newton, 1897.
Edwin Excell.

What light is this whose constant ray
Reveals to travellers lost the way
To mansions of eternal day?
God's holy book, the Bible.

Refrain

I love the Bible, I love the Bible,
A light to shine upon my path,
I love, I love the Bible.

What faithful chart on life's rough sea,
What compass true where'er we be,
What anchor for eternity?
God's holy book, the Bible.

Refrain

What sword enables us to fight
Against sin's powers and Satan's might?
Gives victory for God and right?
God's holy book, the Bible.
