

Hail, Hail, Hail

Alexcenah Thomas, 1889.

George Kurzenknabe.

Hail, hail, hail the blessed Christmas morn;

Hail, hail, hail, the Prince of Peace is born;

The Lord of life and power,

Of wisdom, love and grace,

Has come to heal His people,

To save the fallen race.

Refrain

Hail, hail, hail, ;

Hail, hail, hail, and .

Hail, hail, hail, to Christ our infant king;

Hail, hail, hail, the choirs celestial sing;

The heav'nly host rejoices

Throughout the starry sky,

While all our happy voices

Sing praise to God on high.

Refrain

Joy, joy, joy, our hearts are glad today;

Joy, joy, joy, let sorrow flee away;

For Christ, our Light was given

To banish all our woe,

And He came down from Heaven,

His love for us to show.
