

He's Coming Back Again
Mrs. H. S. Lehman, 1922.

There's a blessed hope that thrills my heart to know
That the Christ who came to earth so long ago,
Bearing all our sins because He loved us so,
Promised He'd come back again some day.

Refrain

Coming, oh, yes, He's coming,
The very same as when He went away,
Coming, my Lord is coming,
Oh praise His blessed name,
He's coming back some day.

He who on the cross for me was crucified,
He who for my sin and shame in anguish died,
He whose resurrection fully justified,
Promised He'd come back again some day.

Refrain

When He comes again 'twill be as King of kings,
Perfect peace and joy to all the earth He'll bring,
Then throughout eternity, His praise we'll sing,
When, in glory, He returns some day.
