

He Loves Me

Rene Brower, 1916.

Charles Gabriel, Jr.

Is your heart grieving o'er life and its care?
Hardly believing that God answers prayer?
Seek Him and know of His love full and free,
'Till your heart is filled with singing,
"He loves me."

Refrain

Grace and pardon He offers you today,
Full salvation and comfort on life's way;
Take Him now and forevermore be free;
Let your heart be always singing,
"He loves me."

Though friends may leave you your burden to bear,
Though foes deceive you, and life fills with care,
There is a comfort that never will flee,
If your heart is always singing,
"He loves me."

Refrain

Love is a treasure that gold cannot buy,
God's fullest measure gave Jesus to die;
Purchased salvation on Calvary's tree
Let your heart be ever singing,
"He loves me."

Refrain