

I'll Praise Him More and More!
Blanche Clapper, 1905.
James Delmarter.

For what the Savior did for me
Upon the cross of Calvary,
With joy thro' all eternity,
I'll praise Him more and more!

Refrain

I'll praise Him more and more!
Yes, praise Him more and more!
While ages roll, my ransomed soul
Shall praise Him more and more!

Because, for my lost soul, to prove
The depth and sweetness of His love,
He left His Father's house above,
I'll praise Him more and more!

Refrain

Because He paid the debt for me,
And gave my soul sweet liberty,
Forever His my love shall be
I'll praise Him more and more!

Refrain

Because I know that He will come
To bear my weary spirit home,
When here below I cease to roam,
I'll praise Him more and more!
