

If It Be True

Grace McClanathan, 1909.

Daniel Towner.

If it be true that the Father so loved
A world lost in sin and despair,
That He gave His dear Son upon Calvary's cross,
That we life eternal might share,

Refrain

Then tell it out! tell it out!
Tell the wondrous news around,
Till all the world, the whole wide world,
Shall hear the glorious sound!

If it be true that our sin He blots out,
And remembers against us no more,
That hearts are made white in the blood of the Lamb,
And released from sin's bondage and power,

Refrain

If it be true that His peace He bestows,
A peace that the world cannot give!
That He giveth us richly all things to enjoy,
And life more abundant to live,

Refrain

Christian, make haste the glad message to give;
The King's business brooks no delay;
God's perishing children are calling for help;
Go tell them of Jesus today.
