

Loved Ones Gone

B. F. Greenhaw, 1919.

We have loved ones gone before us,
To the peaceful, heav'nly shore,
And they're happy with their Savior,
Singing praises evermore.

Refrain

Loved ones gone are now rejoicing
Free from sorrow, pain and care;
Blessed thought, thro Christ we'll meet them
In that home so bright and fair.

Sad and lonely they have left us,
But our Father's will be done;
Trusting Him we'll praise and serve Him,
Till our race on earth is run.

Refrain

O how sweet 'twill be to join them,
In that happy home above;
There to dwell in peace forever,
Sharing our Redeemer's love.

Refrain