

Men of God, Go Take Your Stations
Thomas Kelly, 1806.
William Blow, 1867.

Men of God, go take your stations;
Darkness reigns throughout the earth:
Go proclaim among the nations,
Joyful news of heavenly birth;
Bear the tidings
Of the Savior's matchless worth.

Of His Gospel not ashamed,
As "the power of God to save,"
Go, where Christ was never named,
Publish freedom to the slave;
Blessed freedom!
Such as Zion's children have!

What though earth and hell united
Should oppose the Savior's plan?
Plead His cause, nor be affrighted,
Fear ye not the face of man;
Vain their tumult,
Hurt His work they never can.

When exposed to fearful dangers,
Jesus will His own defend;
Borne afar, midst foes and strangers,
Jesus will appear your Friend;
And His presence
Shall be with you to the end.
