

O Friend Without Jesus

Roscoe Stott, 1908.

Daniel Towner.

I have a Savior who's pleading above;

Have you? Have you?

I have a Savior who keeps by His love;

O friend without Jesus, have you?

Refrain

My dear loving Savior, my keeper, my king;

My blessed Redeemer, Thy praises I sing;

Yes, I have a master so gentle and true;

O friend without Jesus, have you?

I have a shepherd who leads all the way;

Have you? Have you?

I have a shepherd who seeks when I stray;

O friend without Jesus, have you?

Refrain

I have a Father who hears when I call;

Have you? Have you?

I have a Father who warns ere I fall;

O friend without Jesus, have you?

Refrain

Who could reject Him, my Savior and king!

Will you? Will you?

I have believed Him; His love makes me sing;

O friend, I received Him; will you?
