

O Hallelujah, Praise His Holy Name
Max Rapp, 1921.

There's a story that's been told, Hallelujah!
Of a Savior and His precious love;
How He died to make us free, Hallelujah!
That we all might go and live with Him above.

Refrain

O Hallelujah!
Praise His holy name and let our voices ring;
There are mansions up above,
All prepared for those who love
And sing of their Savior king.

There's a song that's in my heart, Hallelujah!
I'm so glad that He has made me whole;
I am saved, and by His grace, Hallelujah!
I will always keep His love within my soul.

Refrain

There's a song that's in the air, Hallelujah!
All the angels sing it in the sky;
"Just repent and He'll forgive," Hallelujah!
And your soul to Him for refuge then will fly.
