

Ring Out, Ring Out, O Christmas Bells

Katharine Ingmise.

Charles Roper.

Ring out, ring out, O Christmas bells!

A tale of joy your music tells;

A Savior King was born today

To rule the hearts of men for aye.

Refrain

For this we join to swell the strain

The angels sang o'er Judah's plain!

Glory to God, good will to men,

Shall rise and fill the heav'ns again.

O Lord of lords, and King of kings,

Sweet peace and joy Thy presence brings;

We know the Father loves us well

To rescue thus our souls from hell.

Refrain

But who can measure all the love

That brought Thee from Thy throne above,

With us to live, for us to die,

That we might reign with Thee on high.

Refrain

Dear Savior, elder brother, friend,

Abide with us till life shall end;

And then, when death shall set us free,

Within the kingdom won by Thee.

Refrain