

Some Sweet Day

Isham Reynolds, 1916.

There is a land our eyes shall see,
Some sweet day, some sweet day;
Where we shall dwell, dear Lord, with Thee,
Some sweet day, some sweet day.

Refrain

Some sweet day, some sweet day,
We shall dwell in "Glory Land";
Some sweet day, some sweet day
With the ransomed we shall stand.

From care and toil we shall be free,
Some sweet day, some sweet day;
Eternal joy in Heav'n 'twill be,
Some sweet day, some sweet day.

Refrain

Around the throne we'll sing His praise,
Some sweet day, some sweet day;
Aloud the great hosannas raise,
Some sweet day, some sweet day.

Refrain

We'll meet the loved ones gone before,
Some sweet day, some sweet day;
To know and greet them as of yore,
Some sweet day, some sweet day.
