

The Gospel of Thy Grace
Arthur Pierson, 1878.
James McGranahan.

The Gospel of Thy grace
My stubborn heart has won,
For God so loved the world
He gave His only Son,
That

Refrain

"Whosoever will believe,
Shall everlasting life receive!"
"Shall everlasting life receive!"

The serpent "lifted up"
Could life and healing give,
So Jesus on the cross
Bids me to look and live;
For

Refrain

"The soul that sinneth dies":
My awful doom I heard;
I was forever lost,
But for Thy gracious word
That

Refrain

"Not to condemn the world"
The "Man of sorrows" came;
But that the world might have
Salvation thro' His name;
For

Refrain

"Lord, help my unbelief!"
Give me the peace of faith,
To rest with childlike trust
On what Thy Gospel saith,
That

Refrain
