

There's No Love like His Love for Me

John Newkirk, 1890.

Powell Fithian.

There's no love to me like the love of Jesus,
Ever, always just the same;
E'en tho' of this world you may be most lowly,
Jesus still loves you, bless His name.

Refrain

There never was one like Jesus,
Ever, always true is He;
There never was one like Jesus,
There's no love like His love to me.

When far, far away, and in condemnation,
Feeling no one cared for me,
There came a sweet voice,
I shall ne'er forget it,
"Jesus thy Savior still loves thee."

Refrain

Oh, wonderful love, is the love of Jesus,
Who on Calvary's cruel tree
Was wounded and died to make full atonement
For a poor sinner, lost, like me.
