

Where Are Thy Sins
Clara Denton, 1909.
Henry Gilmour.

Where are thy sins, O brother, where?
Child of sorrow and despair,
Dost thou still thy burdens bear?
O bring them all to Jesus.

Refrain

"Who is a God like unto Thee,
Pardoneth all iniquity,
Casteth our sins in the depths of the sea,
Because He delighteth in mercy."

Where are thy sins, O brother, pray?
Not one moment longer stay;
He will speak thy sins away,
O bring them all to Jesus.

Refrain

Where are thy sins? O brother, see,
Radiance beams from Calvary;
Pardoned now thy sins may be,
O bring them all to Jesus.

Refrain

Yield now, O yield! my brother dear,
Jesus speaks sweet words of cheer;
Joy will come instead of fear;
Surrender all to Jesus.
