

Will You Trust This Friend Today
Ila Livingstan, 1919.
George Bacon.

Jesus is the friend of sinners,
Jesus died our souls to save;
On the cruel cross He suffered,
There His precious life He gave.

Refrain

Sinner, come to Christ today;
Come, accept Him while you may;
Now His precious blood will cleanse you,
Will you come to Him today?

If in sin you choose to wander,
Still reject His love so true,
You must part from friends and loved ones,
Who are praying now for you.

Refrain

Will you not in faith accept Him,
Trust the Christ who died for you,
That when life on earth is over,
You His loving face may view?

Refrain

When our journey here is ended,
When life's race is fully run,
If we've followed Christ, our Savior,
We shall hear His sweet "Well done!"
