

Traditional Irish Music

www.traditionalmusic.co.uk

Daughters Will You Marry?

G D7 G
Yea, father, yea.

Will you marry a farmer ?

G D7 G
Nay, father, nay.

C
A farmer's wife I will not be,
D7 G
Cleaning out stables is not for me,
D7 G
Nay, father, nay.

Daughters will you marry ?

Yea, father, yea.

Will you marry a doctor ?

Nay, father, nay.

A doctor's wife I will not be,
Torturing people is not for me,
Nay, father, nay.

Will you marry a teacher ?

A teacher's wife I will not be,
Punishing children is not for me,

Will you marry a lawyer ?

A lawyer's wife I will not be,
Cheating people is not for me,

Will you marry a fisherman ?

A fisherman's wife I will not be,
Digging up worms is not for me,

Daughters will you marry ?

Yea, father, yea.

Will you marry a fiddler ?

Yea, father, yea.

I'd like to be a fiddler's wife,
Singing and dancing all of my life,
Yea, father, yea.