Katie

^G Tumbling ^C curls of green by ^D staining ^G glass streaming ^D light
And a yellow coloured lampshade used to keep us up all night
^G And the smile upon her face, the tears upon your cheek
And the night sky on the window
Your heart calling out to me.

Chorus

^G Come running home again, katie
^C Come running home again
^D Cross my heart and hope to die
Shall I cause another tear from your eye ^D Katie
^G The mirror that won't talk and your nightgown on the door
And the old pedal singer just don't sing no more

^G You can roll the reels for hours
^C From the movie of this book
It's a question mark on this heart of mine
Sends an elder back to look.

Chorus

Now I'm looking through a tunnel
Back into the room
With the genius of a druid when the sunlight floods the tomb
And I'm never going back there, and I couldn't anyway
'cause though I made the great escape
I never got away.

Chorus
