

Lullabye Of London

C F C F C F C C
As I walked down by the riverside one evening in the spring

C F C F C F C C
Heard a long gone song from days gone by blown in on the great North Wind

F C Am F
Though there is no lonesome corncrake's cry of sorrow and delight

C F C F C F C C
You can hear the cars and the shouts from bars and the laughter and the fights

F C Am F
May the ghosts that howled round the house at night never keep you from your sleep

C F C F C C C C
May they all sleep tight down in hell tonight or wherever they may be

As I walked on with a heavy heart then a stone danced on the tide
And the song went on though the lights were gone and the North Wind gently sighed
And an evening breeze coming from the East that kissed the riverside
So I pray now child that you sleep tonight when you hear this lullabye

May the wind that blows from haunted graves never bring you misery
May the angels bright watch you tonight and keep you while you sleep
