Sonny's Dream

D
Sonny dont go away,im here all alone,
G D
Your daddy's a soilornever camehome,
A
Nights are so long,silence goes on,
G D A
I'm feeli sotierd,not all thatstrong.

Sonny lives on a farm,in a wide open space,
Take off your shoes,stay out of the race,
Laydown your headby the soft river bed,
Sonny always remembers the words mammy said.

Sonny works on the land,though he's barley a man
There's not much to do,he does what he can,
He sits by the window,of his room by the stairs,
He watches the waves gently wash on the pier.

Many years have gone by,Sonny's old and alone,
His daddy the sailor never came home
Sometimes he wanders what his life might have been
But from the grave mammy still haunts his dreams.
(Repeat first verse)
