

Cocaine Carolia

C Morning found me lyin' on a floor in New Orleans F
 G Looking like the patches was about to eat my jeans C
 F Feeling like my belly was a warehouse for the blues
 G And I sure miss my sweet Cocaine Carolina C

F Better on an ocean liner, call the Cocaine Carolina C
 G She was quite a lady then, and I was twenty-two C
 F God knows how much I adored her, I just never could afford her C
 G Cocaine Carolina how did I get hooked on you C

Chorus:

F So goodbye Cocaine Carolina, you and I are through C
 G I'm going back to Sandy Skag, she knows just what to do
 C She don't love me for my money, she just wants my body honey C
 G Cocaine Carolina, how did I get hooked on you C

F Oh someone said if I was lucky, I could go back to Kentucky C
 G Lexington was famous for its bluegrass and its hills C
 F Carolina we should get up, don't you know we'll have to split up C
 G Baby I should go to Californ-ia C

Repeat chorus and fade
