

THAT OLD WHEEL

(Chorus) That old wheel is gonna roll around once more
When it does it will even up the score
Dont be weak: as they sew, they will reap
Turn the other cheek and dont give in
That old wheel will roll around again

When love is gone and the one you thought would stay
Does you wrong, and youre left alone to pay
The price is high
But somehow youll survive, dont give in
That old wheel will roll around again

(Chorus)

There'll be times, hard to control
And you'll find you'll hurt down in your soul
There'll be those who'll be glad to see you down
But dont give in, that old wheel will roll around again

(Chorus x 2)

Roll around, around, again, again
