

Does Your Mother Know-crd

(G) (D) (E) (A) (G) (D) (E) (A)

Does your mother know, you (D) had to go some(F#m)day
 (A) Does your mother know, that (G) you would (D) grow so (C) fast
 (D) Anyway, that's (F#m) all you (C) think about You'd (D) call her if you (E) could

But the (Am) letters (Am/G) that you (Fmaj7) write
 In the (Am) faded (Am/G) winter (F) light
 Just (C) tell her, they (Em) tell her
 That you've (Am) got ten (C) dollars and you'll (F) be all (C) right
 And when (F) you get (C) straight you're gonna (F) come back east some (A) day

Does your mother know, you had a man in the west
 Does your mother know, you drove him from your door
 Anyway that's all you think about
 You'd call her if you could

Does your mother know, you walked all day in the rain
 Does your mother know, how deep your love could be
 Anyway that's all you think about
 You'd call her if you could

But the letters that you write
 In the faded winter light
 Just tell her, they tell her
 That you've got ten dollars and your rent costs eight
 And when you get straight you're gonna come back east some day

But the (Am) letters (Am/G) that you (Fmaj7) write
 In the (Am) faded (Am/G) winter (F) light
 Just (C) tell her, they (Am6) tell her (G) (D) (E) (A)
