

Fading Away-crd

(Am) I was at the breakwall, I was looking at the sea
 In (D) back of an eight ball (Am) in some misery
 There on the horizon stood a mighty ship of fools
 They were (D) headed into the harbour with (Am) all their broken rules
 Whenever I'm feeling (C) lonely I can (D) just pick up the (Am) phone
 Or I can go to the (C) movies or just (D) stay at home a(Am)lone
 They're better off to be (C) someplace that's a
 (D) Good long way from (Am) home
 (D) Anyway I can lose myself, (C) the dawn is breaking, I'm (D) hesitating
 I'm (A) (G) (D) Fading a(A)way, (G) (D) fading a(A)way (G) (D) (A)

They sailed right up to meet me, I said what's it all about
 Please try to excuse me, we can work things out
 If you've ever wondered if that mighty ship is real
 Let me tell ya 'bout it brother, it was something you could feel

Whenever I'm feeling lonely I let twilight set the tone
 Or I can go to the movies or just stay at home alone
 They're better off to be someplace that's a good long way to roam
 Ain't living high on the hog right now
 Dawn is breaking, I'm hesitatin', I'm
 Fading away, fading away

One more day on the calendar in my mind
 I am down around the breakwall putting in some time
 The whole ship of fools has gotten safely under way
 And I was proud to be a part of what it was they had to say

Whenever I'm feeling lonely I can just pick up the phone
 Or I can go to the movies or just stay at home alone
 They're better off to be someplace that's a good long piece from home
 Anyway I can lose myself
 Dawn is breaking, I'm hesitating, I'm
 Fading away, fading away
 Fading away, fading away (G) (D)
