

I'm Losing My Mind

Album: One's On The Way

(Sandy Burnett)

Doctor how could live with this broken heart
But my pride won't forget my mistakes
I sleep and my heart tells me oh what a fool
I'm losing my mind for my baby's sake.

I'm losing my mind because I love him so
And it's so hard to love a man then let him go
And doctor he'll need something to ease his pain
When he finds out the reason why I've gone insane.

--- Instrumental ---

Guilt is my sickness and I wear it well
'Cause my baby don't know what I've done
Guilt that he'll leave me when he'll learn the truth
The truth about his son.

I'm losing my mind because I love him so
And it's so hard to love a man then let him go
And doctor he'll need something to ease his pain
When he finds out the reason why I've gone insane...
