

(I'M GONNA PAINT ME A) BED OF ROSES

In our bedroom there's a portrait done in different shades of gray
That I painted out before you broke my heart
In the scatch we're arm in arm but in the background there's a storm
And it soon become and tear my world apart

And before my days are over I'm gonna try my hand again
Do a portrait like I wanted life to be Put some flowers on the ground and color springtime all around
And paint the bed of roses just for me
I'm gonna paint me a bed of roses
One without one single cloud in a big blue sky
Yeah I'm gonna paint me a bed of roses
Where love and patience never die
