

No More You And Me
By Merle Haggard

C F C
Today something told me not to call you
But with trembling hands I dialed the telephone G7
C F C
And as it rang the seventh time
I knew I'd lost what once was mine
F C G7 C
There'll be no more you and me from now on

G7
There'll be no more you and me
F C
There'll be only misery
F C
Cause you and him me and loneliness
G7 C
But no more you and me

F C
I don't have to see his arms wrapped around you
F C G7
To know you've chosen him instead of me
C F C
But just to know you'd been with him
F C
I called the place you'd been
F C G7 C
I had to verify the thing I couldn't see
