

The Sermon On The Mount
 Recorded by Merle Haggard
 Written by Hank Williams and Merle Haggard

G C
 A man sat on a mountainside a carpenter by trade
 G D7
 Teaching His disciples while they knelt and prayed
 G C
 He blessed the poor and simple and He brought the mourners joy
 G D7 G
 He came to heal the blind and lame they came not to destroy

C
 When smitten by His enemies He turned the other cheek
 G D7
 He brought strength of God and morals to mortals who were weak
 G C
 He told of false prophets who wore a sheep's disguise
 G D7 G
 And He warned us not to trust him or to listen to his lies

D7 C
 Hey the summon on the mountainside will live eternally
 G D7
 He'll lead us to the kingdom and He'll promise you and me
 G C
 So take the straight and narrow and do good things that count
 G D7 G
 Make up your mind to live by the sermon on the mount
