

Where were you in Chicago

By Phil Ochs

Oh, where were you in Chicago?

You know I didn't see you there

I didn't see them crack your head or breathe the tear gas air

Oh, where were you in Chicago?

When the fight was being fought

Oh, where were you in Chicago?

'Cause I was in Detroit.

"That's about the movement psychology."