

For A' That and A' That
By:Leo Smith

Be he lean or be he fat,
A boss is a boss for a' that.
No matter what his wage or name,
He's but a slave driver just the same.
He may roar like a bull or purr like a cat,
But a boss is a boss for a' that.
He may be a straw boss but makes no diff:
He has nothing in common with the working stiff.
No matter what job you're working at,
A boss is a boss for a' that.
