

Hymn to Riego
By:Nancy Head
a Spanish folk song

Oh, joyous and fearless, audacious, invincible,
Come sing with us, comrades, our mighty battle song.
Forever remembered, adored by the masses,
You brave sons of the workers, and peasants of Spain.

It is for our people; for Spain, we must unite.
For victory and freedom, we'll win or die in the fight!

Alive is the glory of those who have struggled.
The whole world remembers their labor in the strife.
Riego, Riego, we sing of your victory.
It was for the workers you laid down your life.

It is for our people; for Spain, we must unite.
For victory and freedom, we'll win or die in the fight!
