

March On in the Egypt Land
By:Samuel H. Friedman
a slave spiritual with additional lyrics by Samuel H. Friedman

Way over in the Egypt land,
We shall gain the victory;
Way over in the Egypt land,
We shall gain the day.

March on, and we shall gain the victory;
March on, and we shall gain the day.
March on, and we shall gain the victory;
March on, and we shall gain the day.

Not only on the Egypt strand,
We shall gain the victory,
Do Pharaoh and his cohorts stand,
We shall gain the day.

March on, and we shall gain the victory;
March on, and we shall gain the day.
March on, and we shall gain the victory;
March on, and we shall gain the day.

Wherever there's an Egypt land,
We shall gain the victory;
We are an ever-growing band,
We shall gain the day.

March on, and we shall gain the victory;
March on, and we shall gain the day.
March on, and we shall gain the victory;
March on, and we shall gain the day.

Yes, when the workers understand,
We shall gain the victory,
They'll slave no more in Egypt land,
We shall gain the day.

March on, and we shall gain the victory;
March on, and we shall gain the day.
March on, and we shall gain the victory;
March on, and we shall gain the day.
