

The Koch Song

(sung as A capella/Call & Response)

(Sung to the tune of Id Like To TeachThe World To Sing)

Id like to buy the Kochs a world,
 So theyd leave ours alone,
 Then go back to Park Avenue,
 And crawl beneath their stone.
 Id like to give the Kochs the bird,
 From my whole family. (my whole family)
 Just keep your phony culture war,
 And keep your stupid tea . (theyre the evil thing)
 Kochs are (make them go away)
 Theyre the bad guys (theyre the evil thing)
 Kochs are (make them go away)
 Theyre the bad guys (theyre the evil thing)

The Kochs would like to buy the world,
 And make it all their own.
 It's grown too full of free ideas,
 To really feel like home.
 Theyll focus on the simple things,
 Like lower tax for all, (really just for them)
 And hope that we dont see where most
 Of the benefit will fall. (theyre the evil thing)
 Kochs are (make them go away)
 Theyre the bad guys (theyre the evil thing)
 Kochs are (make them go away)
 Theyre the bad guys (theyre the evil thing)

Yes they finance the Tea Par-TY,
 And talking heads you'll trust.
 And hope the working folks don't see,
 It never helps out us. (theyre the evil thing)
 Id like to teach the Kochs about
 A true democracy, (a true democracy)
 Where working class kicks corporate mass,
 From sea to shining sea.

Suggestion: split chorus into two groups for lines that have regular/italics lines
 and sing as call and response.
