

Workers Together

By:John Irwin

Grades 5B, 5A McKinley School, Gloversville, N.Y., 1932

O, God, Thy rain and sun and soil
Are joined with human toil
To bring from ev'ry clime and land
These bounties to our hand.
We thank our God for sun and soil,
Our brother man for toil.
Apart from all not one could live,
And so our thanks we give.