

I'll Have What She's Having Album:Keep on Loving You Reba McEntire

No i don't want no jack and coke Please sit me where there ain't no smoke dont need nothin cloudin up my eyes well you see that girl over there dancin like shes on thin air theres got to be a secret to her smile well i think that i just found it and hes twirlin her around well i'd like to place my order you might wanna to write this down i'll have what she's havin i want what she's got someone sweet as he can be

and by the way that HOT a tall order i suppose if you can find me one of those

well i like the way he looks at her its plain to see he knows the words that makes her shine from forty feet away if theres any justice in this world he's got a twin who wants a girl who looks like me excuse me while i pray so if you could slip my number in that pocket on his hip it would be appreciated and reflected in your tip

i want what she's got

well i know its wrong to covet but why should she have all of it
oh ill have what she's havin
