

I'm Gonna Take That Mountain
Album: Room to Breathe
Reba McEntire

Im gonna take that mountain

I was born a stubborn soul
Aint afraid of the great unknown
Or a winding road thats all uphill
This is just a stumbling block
Intimidating wall of rock
If you think this broken heart will break my will

Im gonna take that mountain
Aint nothing gonna slow me down
And there aint no way around it
Gonna leave it level with the ground
Aint just gonna cross it, climb it, fight it
Im gonna take that mountain

Its overwhelming looking up
I know when its the challenge of -
Me against this heartache to survive
I may slip and I may fall
But even if I have to crawl
Ill break through to the healing side

Im gonna take that mountain
Aint nothing gonna slow me down
And there aint no way around it
Gonna leave it level with the ground
Aint just gonna cross it, climb it, fight it
Im gonna take that mountain

Aint just gonna cross it, climb it, fight it

Im gonna take that mountain
Aint nothing gonna slow me down
And there aint no way around it
Gonna leave it level with the ground
Aint just gonna cross it, climb it, fight it
Im gonna take that mountain

I was born a stubborn soul
This is a stumbling block
Im gonna take that mountain
