

Once You've Learned To Be Lonely
Capo 1st Fret

Intro: A E B

Verse 1:

A
You're asking me to open up
I'm tryin' my best to give enough

E
To keep this love alive

A
It wouldn't be so hard for me to do

E B
If it hadn't have been for all my heart's been through

Chorus:

E
But once you've learned to be lonely

A
And lonely is the only thing you've known

E
It begins to feel like home

B
It becomes your comfort zone

E
Once you've learned to be without someone

A
And settle for the silence of an empty room

E
Oh, it changes you

B
There's a lot you have to undo

E
Once you've learned to be lonely

Verse 2:

A
It becomes a habit of the heart

To be afraid to even start

E
To try and love again

A
I want to give you myself to you

E B
But I've been alone so long that I'm scared, scared to move

Repeat Chorus

Bridge:

A E
I've built walls but I feel them falling down

A B
Touch by touch your love is my way out

Repeat Chorus

B
There's a lot you have to undo

E
Once you've learned to be lonely
